Title: A Note from Isham

Author: Isham,

My Love,

I am sorry I had to postpone our rendez-vous again. But this time it's truly worth it! That tinker Jared will be giving me a lot of money just to help him test children toys for Hallow's Eve!
You should come as well!
Maybe we can convince him he needs an extra helper and you could make some gold too. And then we would have enough to elope like we always wanted!

The lab is well hidden and the guard won't let you in without permission so bring this note as he may ask for it. In one of the caves at the mining camp north of here, you'll find a big grey skull. Say "loki" near the skull and it will take you to me.

See you soon!
